The Earthquake of January 2010

Effects of the Earthquake of January 2010

- Total number of lives lost: 316,000
- Over 300,000 people were wounded during the earthquake
- Over 2 million people require emergency food assistance
- 1.2 million people require emergency shelter
- 1.9 million families lost their homes
- Over 600,000 people migrated from Port-au-Prince and settled in rural areas
- 97,000 homes were destroyed
- 188,000 homes were damaged
- Total number of people affected by the earthquake: 3 million

Source: International Organization for Migration, New York Times

Post-Earthquake Migration from Port-au-Prince

Source: http://reliefweb.int/rw/fullmaps_am.nsf/

