

ABOUT HAITI NOW

WHO WE ARE

Haiti Now (Ayiti Now Corp) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation headquartered in Miami Beach, Florida. Immediately after the January 2010 earthquake, we landed in Haiti with a strong desire to help. The initiative to respond to the medical emergency started with Uchenna Aningo, PA-C. Haiti Now was founded by Alex Lizzappi during those days after the earthquake to assist effectively the people in need.

DELIVERING OUR MISSION – SAFE HOUSE

THE PROBLEM

Restavek is a long-standing practice in Haiti where impoverished families send their children who are mostly girls to live with families who are better off to be cared for in exchange for domestic services. In reality, these girls are overworked, neglected, and mistreated. Haiti Now believes that Restavek girls need specialized programs to overcome emotional abuse and extreme poverty.

THE HAITI NOW SOLUTION

Haiti Now strives to create a concrete solution to this problem by raising funds to build a Safe House to provide shelter that not only protects but also nurtures Restavek girls and underprivileged children of Haiti.

DELIVERING OUR MISSION - ACCELERATED EDUCATION

EMPOWERMENT THROUGH EDUCATION

Beyond funding a physical home, Haiti Now has been investing in an Accelerated Education program to give Restavek girls a springboard for their academics while sheltered in the Safe House. The Accelerated Education program, funded by donations to Haiti Now, will offer a supportive environment and rich curriculum to enable students to obtain a 6th grade diploma in three years. The program features best in class teaching methods, modern technology, and financial literacy as core to the curriculum.

IMPACT TO DATE

A TRACK RECORD OF SUCCESS

Since its founding, Haiti Now has been dedicated to improving the lives of impoverished children in Haiti through education. Haiti Now has a track record in success from its original School Book Bank Program which it will bring to its new initiatives such as the Safe House and Accelerated Education. These programs strive to increase access to quality education for marginalized children of poverty to improve their future life prospects by allowing them to recognize their full human potential

ALEX'S STORY

Alex's dedication to Haiti Now stems from his own childhood struggles, landing him in an orphanage at age six and homeless by 16. He was able to rise above his circumstances by bravely reaching out for help. Alex was awed by the kindness and support he received from others, and thus fueled to help others in need.

When Alex first visited Haiti, he was devastated by the profound poverty and its impact on children. He felt compelled to act and in 2010 he founded Haiti Now.

Since then, Haiti Now has been focused on empowering the most vulnerable and disenfranchised demographic in Haitian society—its children.
