

Meeting of parents

Objective: Educate parents about malpractice punishment of any kind.

First part:

Questions / Answers

- Ask parents how they see children now and children long (time not)?
- What makes the difference between children in the past and children today?
- What do you notice between the time parents spend with parents today?
- What should be done to have a change in children today?
- What should be done to have a change among parents today?

Second part:

- What parents and teachers can do when Timon evil act?
- What punishment mode parents and teachers used?
- Let them know there are 2 types of punishment corporal punishment and verbal aggression.
- What is the punishment?
- For what we punish children?
- How the punishment be?

synthesis

- Punishment is a means to help children realize that their evil acts.
- Punishment is aimed at better training for children.
- Punishment is designed to help keep order and discipline.
- Punishment must be fair and not a surprise.
- Punishment must relate to the child's fault do.
- Punishment should realize sensitivity of the child.
- Penalties should apply and rarely lead we apply without anger.

Some reasons we should not beat children

1 - Whoever rough, beat, hit, insulted their children, they are showing shows these children, when they get older to serve as their child. A child who receives many punishment to become violent during a lifetime. First research shows our most dangerous criminals are let children know more oppressed.

2 - Penalties are sometimes shown is greater will bring harm smaller or weaker is so older children still tend to hit smaller.

3 - It would be better for our children and try to correct words instead we would hit them shamefully. Good manners that will show kids when they need to solve a problem that afflict younger than them.

4 - Solomon said in the Bible "implying aime well chastise well." This means that Solomon recommended scourge, he agreed to shave their parents children. This method did not work well and it Reoboram. Jesus himself encouraged his love for children he did not encourage punishment.

5 - A parent who beats a child can not have a good relationship with this child because nobody can have love and affection for those who do suffer.

6 - Even if pinison would show it brings a change in first time home but when children become older children or society will pay.

7 - Classes will be given to children in all parts of the body, can become these children feel severe pain and may even cause difficulties when it formed, it can even paralyzed, and they become disabled.

8 - Fashion punishment practices that can make the child negligent, lack of appetite, can not sleep, can not learn in school, the child may even die.

N.B. : Beloved, it is better to be a friend or a counselor for children.

"Love is the only way so children know the true value as people. »